Acknowledgements

The Foundation Board of Directors acknowledges the research efforts of Cheri Butcher, Cynthia Merrin and Gina Stephens of the First-Knox National Bank Trust Department, as well as those of past investments manager Ian Watson. Without their assistance the task of preparing this report would have been impossible. We also express our appreciation to friends and family members of Community Foundation fund namesakes for sharing several of the personal photo that appear on our fund directory pages, and to Ted Schnormeier for our cover images.

On the cover

For the second consecutive year our report features a local waterfall. Last year the Falls at Honey Run graced our cover; this year we are pleased to give many readers their first look at the the new Quarry Garden, created in 2008 with 1,100 ton of quarried material, on Schnormeier Gardens property held within a like-named Community Foundation fund.

Foundation thrived despite a global recession

Year in review: Johnson bequest will aid economic development

A year that might have been remembered only for tumbling investment markets, was also one in which contributions to the Community Foundation of Mount Vernon & Knox County exceeded $3,000,000 for just the second time in its 64-year history. The Foundation's mostly unrealized loss thus mitigated, board members took comfort in the fact our endowment value remained within reach of the 2007 high water mark. (see "Auditors' Report and Financial Statement," page 3.)

The addition of 13 new named funds to the Community Foundation, in the midst of historic economic turmoil, was also reaffirming evidence of our community's indomitable philanthropic spirit.

It is tradition to use this space first to acknowledge those who began a philanthropic partnership with the Community Foundation during the prior year. Three new funds were created via bequest, adding more than $2.2 million to the unrestricted endowment that supports the Foundation's competitive grants program (see page 4). Five funds, designated for the support of specific educational, civic or cultural institutions, were established either with new gifts or by interfund transfer of previously contributed assets. Three memorial scholarship funds and two donor-advised funds, one honoring a young soldier killed in Iraq, were also created in 2008. The complete list of new funds is as follows:

New Unrestricted Funds

Ellen Grant Crawford Fund – Established with a bequest of $76,002, half of which the Foundation was instructed to distribute upon receipt to the First Presbyterian Church of Fredericktown. The Paul G. Crawford Fund, created following the death of her husband in 2005, has provided annual support for Mount Vernon High School athletic programs.

Samuel D. and Marie D. Cureton Fund – Established with a $271,974 distribution from a remainder trust created by Samuel D. Cureton, a U.S. Navy Veteran and Mount Vernon resident.

Harold C. and Roberta C. Johnson Fund – Established with a bequest of $1,875,500 from the estate of Roberta C. Johnson, wife of Harold Johnson, Mount Vernon Mayor, from 1971 to 1975. While nominally restricted to projects that "promote economic development in Mount Vernon," the bequest gives Foundation directors considerable latitude in distributing the fund's income.

New Organization Funds

Marjorie A. Fearn Fund – Created with a $15,153 interfund transfer of assets previously contributed to the Fredericktown Community Fund, which remains the beneficiary of the assets.

Friends Cemetery Association Fund – Created with a $15,000 gift from the Friends Cemetery Association. The fund allows distribution of income and principal for the maintenance of the historic cemetery in Fredericktown.

Fredericktown Community Center Fund – Created with a $318,232 interfund transfer from the Fredericktown Community Fund to segregate past and encourage future contributions for a proposed community center in the Village of Fredericktown.

Knox County Symphony Association Fund – Created with a $35,093 contribution from the Symphony Association Board, which will use the fund to encourage additional legacy giving to meet future financial needs of the Symphony.

New Designated Fund

Wesley Judd Park for Mount Vernon Nazarene University – Established with proceeds from the estate of Wesley Judd Park in the amount of $9,000, contributed by Dawson Park, brother-in-law of former Foundation board member Winslow Curry. Annual income from the fund will benefit the MVNU Scholarship Fund.

Mount Vernon Mayor Harold C. Johnson and Roberta C. Johnson in their home, circa 1975. The Johnsons retired in Brenham, Texas, following Mr. Johnson's lengthy career with then Cooper Energy Services, and his service as mayor. The couple provided for a substantial bequest to the Community Foundation to encourage economic development in the City of Mount Vernon. (Photo courtesy of Mount Vernon News).

New Scholarship Funds

John M. Ackerman Scholarship Fund – Created with a $13,000 contribution from Loretta Ackerman and Earl Bechtel, in memory of Mr. Ackerman. The fund will provide college scholarships for graduates of Fredericktown High School.

Nancy Sinclair Scholarship Fund – Created with a initial contributions of $1,555 by family and friends, in memory of Nancy L. Sinclair, long-time treasurer of the Mount Vernon City School District. The fund will provide scholarships for MVHS graduates.

New Donor-Advised Funds

Sgt. Benjamin J. Laymon Donor-Advised Fund – Established with a $6,500 contributions from James A. Laymon, father of Sgt. Benjamin J. Laymon, MVHS Class of 2002, who was killed in action near Baghdad, Iraq, June 24, 2006. Initially, income from the fund has been used to purchase community pool memberships for economically disadvantaged youths.

Richard B. and Susan B. Murray Donor-Advised Fund – Established with a gift of Park National Corporation stock valued at $6,347 for future philanthropic purposes. Mr. Murray, a local attorney, has also facilitated the creation of several other funds as an advocate for the Community Foundation.

Institutionally the Community Foundation took a major leap forward in 2008 with the acquisition of dedicated foundation management software. The Foundation Information Management System (FIMS) provided by Microedge, Inc. will enable Community Foundation staff to more efficiently process and track contributions, grants and scholarships.

Foremost among FIMS' features is its ability to precisely report the value of each of the Community Foundation's 267 funds, taking into account each fund's relative share of an investment pool's gains (or losses), fees and distributions. Previously, such calculations involved multiple spreadsheets, and could practically be generated only at year-end. FIMS will make possible the quarterly reporting of these values to our donors and fund advisors.

Finally, there are two Foundation leadership changes in 2008 to report. Board member and development committee chair Thomas Fosnaught reached his term limit, following nine years of service. He was replaced at the October meeting by Terry Divilbiss, President of Fredericktown-based Divilbiss Corporation, a designer and manufacturer of industrial electronic controls. Also, the Foundation's investment manager Ian Watson retired from his position at First-Knox National Bank and was replaced by Cheri Butcher. Ian continues to serve the Foundation as a consultant for the implementation and transition to the new FIMS software.

Ellen Grant Crawford (clockwise from top left), John M. Ackerman, Nancy L. Sinclair and Sgt. Benjamin J. Laymon are among those whose lives are celebrated with new named funds within the Community Foundation.

The Friends Cemetery, situated north of Fredericktown will be the beneficiary of a new organization fund established by its board of directors; retiring Foundation Board Member Tom Fosnaught was honored by Board Chair Mark Ramser (right) last November.

The accompanying notes, which are an integral part of the financial statements, are available for inspection at the Community Foundation.

The inaugural exhibit in the Schonormeier Gallery of Buchwald Hall was being hung in September 2009, as the new MVNU Downtown Mount Vernon complex was being prepared for student occupancy. The site is that of the former Rudin's, Uhlman's and Stage Department Stores.

Capital projects are focus of competitive grants

Major construction projects, which previously were beneficiaries of Community Foundation grants, successfully competed for supplemental funding in 2008.

Principal among these were Central Ohio Technical College (COTC), awarded $75,000 for its downtown Mount Vernon Ariel Hall renovation, and Mount Vernon Nazarene University (MVNU), granted $65,000 for its downtown project reshaping a former department store into a fine arts and continuing education center. The foundation board also made a $125,000 commitment to the planned fine arts complex at Kenyon College.

MVNU will unveil in the fall of 2009 its rehabilitated Rudins (Uhlmans/Stage) Department Store, and adjacent facility, with the hope of injecting new vitality into the South Main Street corridor. Similarly, COTC's Ariel Hall at the corner of South Main Street and Ohio Avenue is expected to serve a full time equivalent student population of more than 1,000 upon completion. The brick structure, formerly occupied by the Colonial Cinema, will undergo renovation in 2011, resulting in optimized space for classrooms, labs and College offices.

Other capital projects receiving completion grants from the Community Foundation were the Heart of Ohio Girl Scouts Council for its new lodge at Camp Cornish ($20,000), the new Mount Vernon Nazarene University nursing simulation laboratory ($20,000), and the Knox County Agricultural Museum for the latest addition to its facility on the Knox County Fairgrounds ($10,000). The Fredericktown Historical Society was awarded a feasibility grant of $5,000 to commission a renovation feasibility study on its facility adjacent to the Fredericktown Village Square.

For the 18th consecutive year The Community Foundation provided funding ($4,000) to the Knox County Educational Service Center for the "Youth Enrichment Series." Y.E.S. makes possible a live performing arts experience for every elementary school student in the county. Annual visits from troupes such as the Columbus Youth Opera and local recording artist Sarah Goslee Reed are much anticipated by area students.

The Community Foundation board of directors once again demonstrated its commitment to an easily-accessed, small grants program by responding to 20 applicants, many seeking start-up or experimental grants of $3,000 or less. This year's small grant recipients included:

- Pathways of Licking County ($2,000) to support implementation of 2-1-1 service in its Knox County service area.
- Mount Vernon Bicentennial Video Project ($1,000) for completion of its multi-part local history series.
- United Way of Knox County ($3,000) to sponsor its annual Family Fun Day at the Knox County Fairgrounds.
- Knox County Symphony Association ($3,000) for replacement of its aging timpani.
- Bladensburg Youth Baseball League ($3,000) to drill a well for potable drinking water at its Bladensburg School fields.
- Columbia Elementary School ($2,000) to purchase reusable reading material for a volunteer program designed to retain reading skills over the summer hiatus.
- Food for the Hungry ($3,000) in support of its very successful annual campaign to avert hunger locally.
- Heritage Centre Association ($1,000) for materials to produce a mural on a downtown building wall, and $2,000 for

The Youth Enrichment Series (above left) provided a live performance consecutive year; the Foundation also helped replace timpani for the Downtown Mount Vernon wayfinding signage.

- Salvation Army ($1,000) to assist with the rehabilitation of its youth playground, in cooperation with the 2008 Leadership Knox class.

- Area Development Corporation ($1,500) in support of a cooperative marketing effort for the County.

- Knox Community Hospital Foundation ($3,000) contribution to its successful “Keep Her in the Picture” campaign, bringing digital mammography services to Knox Community Hospital.

- Mount Vernon High School ($1,000) for a mentoring program, created by Mary Jo Behrensmeyer, that pairs Latin Club students with developmentally disabled students to create mosaic masterpieces.

- East Knox Local Schools ($500) to assist in the purchase of mats for a youth wrestling program.

- Kno-Ho-Co Community Action ($1,000) to provide cervical cancer screening to local women in need.

- CareNet Pregnancy Services ($750) for the purchase of baby furniture.

- New Directions ($500) to acquire teaching materials for a program designed to curb domestic violence.

- Danville Police Department ($250) for materials needed for a youth outreach program.

- Kenyon Review ($500) for the purchase of books distributed in connection with its “Knox Reads” program.

- Knox County Educational Service Center ($1,930) for support of its 2008 Visiting Author/Illustrator program.

In addition to these program grants, unrestricted fund scholarships totalling $25,500 were awarded to Knox County students. A complete list of these scholarship recipients appears in the “General Fund/Unrestricted Grants Fund” report on pages 11 and 12.

Unrestricted grants awarded in 2007, but paid in 2008, included the Foundation’s initial $100,000 commitment for the Central Ohio Technical College Ariel Hall renovation; a final payment of $25,000 to Knox Community Hospital for its “Hope Accelerated Campaign,” bringing radiation oncology services to Mount Vernon; and a $1,200 grant to The Ohio State University Music Department in sponsorship of a spring 2008 free concert performed in the Memorial Theater by the OSU Women’s Glee Club.

May we assist you in achieving your philanthropic goals?

Virtually all of the endowed funds listed on the preceding pages were created as the result of an inquiry made by a prospective donor to an attorney or estate planner, to the Community Foundation staff, or to a board member. If you desire to "leave a legacy" to your community be assured there is no better partner than a community foundation. Let us explain how effortlessly you can establish a named fund that could provide college scholarships, funds for our competitive grants program, annual support for a designated charity, or grants for different charities each year through a donor-advised fund. Our minimum contribution to create a named fund is still just $5,000, or just $1,000 as a Legacy Society member. Interested? Call us today!

Our Mission

- To improve the quality of life in Mount Vernon and Knox County through charitable giving.
- To provide a vehicle for donors of varied interests to support charitable and community activities.
- To assess and respond to emerging and changing community needs in the fields of education, youth services, recreation, arts and culture, social services, and civic and community development.
- To develop a permanent endowment for the community, and to serve as a catalyst for the initiation of vital projects.
