On the cover

Phil Samuell of Gambier, widely recognized for his tireless efforts creating the Kokosing Gap Trail and restoring the Mount Vernon B & O Depot, has accepted yet another community leadership position, as chair of the Foundation Park Conservancy. The Conservancy is working with renowned landscape architects Michael Van Valkenburgh Associates, thanks to a 2010 Ariel Corporation Fund grant. The grant is to explore possibilities for maximizing use of the 130-acre former quarry situated immediately adjacent to downtown Mount Vernon. Samuell, also one of the community's most gifted photographers, provided the night scene of downtown Mount Vernon, as reflected in one of Foundation Park's three lakes.

Asset values rebound to near record levels

2009 year in review

The Board of Directors and staff of the Community Foundation are pleased to make this 65th annual report to the Mount Vernon and Knox County Community. Despite continued uncertainty nationwide about long-term economic recovery, 2009 proved to be a year of significant asset value restoration due to rebounding portfolio values and a continued high level of charitable giving in our community. The Foundation closed the fiscal year with a total asset value of $33,098,877, which is within two per cent of the Foundation's record 2007 year-end market value.

Contributions to the Foundation's 280 funds totalled $2,983,328, approaching or exceeding the $3 million threshold for the second consecutive year. Foundation Chair Mark Ramser observed, "As we conclude our 65th year of operation in the community, we are overwhelmed by the depth and breadth of philanthropic activity in Knox County, as evidenced by the creation of nine new Community Foundation funds in 2009."

NEW FUNDS OF THE COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

Unique to our foundation is the new Judith K. and Leon E. Marlow Fund, a donor-advised fund that will be directed by the Marlows' children. The fund was established with a $721,992 distribution from the Judith K. Marlow IRA.

Married in 1957, Judith (Kading) and Leon Marlow raised five children while moving throughout the midwest as Leon worked 38 years with Marathon Oil and its subsidiary Speedway. Judith began her career as a Lutheran minister in 2001 after graduation from The Lutheran Seminary in Columbus, Ohio. The couple moved to New Martinsville, West Virginia where she presided over two churches, one in New Martinsville and one in Moundsville, West Virginia.

It was Judith's wish that a portion of her estate be placed in a fund and be administered by her children and future generations. In this way she could pass on her, as well as Leon's, commitment to generous living. The children and their families convene annually to discuss organizations they are involved with in their respective communities and to make recommendations for disbursements from the Judith K. and Leon E. Marlow Fund.

Ariel Corporation CEO and Community Foundation Director Karen Buchwald Wright significantly expanded scholarship opportunities by establishing the Ariel Corporation Scholarship Fund with an initial gift of $600,000. In 2009 children of Ariel and Ariel-affiliate employees qualified for awards of $342,262. Individual scholarship amounts varied, based on classroom performance and pursuit of two-year, four-year or engineering degrees.

Three new funds were established to provide local non-profit organizations low-cost, highly diversified investment management through inclusion in our donor-advised investment pool, which now includes 17 such organization funds (see page 6). Additions to the pool this year included The Alcohol and Drug Freedom

The late Rev. Judith K. Marlow and Leon E. Marlow provided for a new Community Foundation fund, the income of which will be distributed upon recommendation of their five children and, subsequently, their children's heirs. (Photo courtesy of Marlow Family)

Center Fund, The Christ Church at the Quarry Restoration Fund, and the Danville Academic Achievement Fund. All organization funds within the Community Foundation may be designated to receive memorial gifts, as well as lifetime gifts, from individuals.

The creation of the Donald T. and Carolyn A. Blizzard Fund in 2009 was part of a decade-long trend that has seen family-based donor-advised funds grow in number from four to twenty-four. Don, a retired Rolls-Royce engineer, and Carolyn, opened their fund with an initial contribution of $10,000, and took advantage of the opportunity to name their daughter as a successor advisor for the fund.

First-Knox National Bank made a $5,000 contribution to the Community Foundation to establish the unrestricted James A. McElroy Fund, in memory of Mr. McElroy who was both the founder of AMG Industries and a former First-Knox National Bank director.

Bequests of $220,447 creating the M. Elizabeth Cummings Fund, and $39,893 establishing the Donald W. Clutter Fund, significantly augmented the Foundation's unrestricted funds, which support its competitive grant program.

DISCRETIONARY GRANTS FUND COMMUNITY PROJECTS

Discretionary grants by the Community Foundation board of directors numbered 38 with a total value of $444,936 in 2009. These included distributions from unrestricted funds, the Harold and Roberta Johnson Fund and the William and Peggy Stroud Fund. Forty-three separate funding requests – with combined project budgets exceeding $10 million – were considered throughout the year.

The Foundation provided supplemental support to two higher education capital projects in Downtown Mount Vernon, with matching $100,000 grants to Mount Vernon Nazarene University and Central Ohio Technical College. The Harold and Roberta Johnson Fund contributed $35,000 for each of these grants in advancement of the fund's economic development mission. MVNU's Buchwald Center in the former Rudin's Department Store building opened in late 2009, while the COTC campus in the former Colonial Cinema structure was slated to begin renovation in 2010. Both initiatives are expected to add vitality to Mount Vernon's Central Business District.

The Fredericktown Park District received a $61,000 grant from the Foundation's Special Projects Fund, including an $11,000 pass-through from the William and Peggy Stroud Fund, to purchase acreage along Mill Street for park purposes. The acquisition within easy walking distance of downtown greatly enhances the adjacent Fredericktown Community Park.

Mount Vernon YMCA and Interchurch Social Services received major capital grants of $50,000 and $45,000, respectively, for urgently needed repairs and improvements to the YMCA's aquatic center and for Interchurch's new operations center on West Gambier Street, dedicated in August 2009.

Knox County Head Start was the recipient of a $30,000 economic stabilization grant to sustain all-day, year-around pre-school services in the wake of state budget cuts. United Way of Knox County assisted the Community Foundation in screening agencies for emergency assistance. (Read more, page 13.)

Other large grants (those in excess of $3,000) included: $6,241 to Saint Paul's Episcopal Church to install a dishwasher in its community hot-meals kitchen; $5,000 to the City of Mount Vernon to enhance video-link technology at City Hall; $5,000 to help equip the Centerburg High School Robotics Team, which went on to win statewide honors in its inaugural year; $5,000 to East Knox Local Schools for its collaborative Wellness Path project, adjacent to Bladensburg Elementary School; $4,000 for the Community Foundation's 19th annual sponsorship of the Youth Enrichment Series (Y.E.S.), coordinated by the Knox County Educational Service Center; and $3,500 to Knox County

Head Start to replace kitchen equipment at its early education center.

The Foundation recognized two retiring board members (see page 5) and welcomed one new board member in 2009. Beginning a five-year term in the fall was Dr. Amy D. Murnen, a Mount Vernon family practice physician. The remaining board vacancy was scheduled to be filled in January 2010. ♦

Note to the financial statements:

The Community Foundation is following the provisions of FASB ASC 958-605-50 "Transfers of Assets to a Not-for-Profit Organization or Charitable Trust that Raises or Holds Contributions for Others." This provision establishes standards for transactions in which a community foundation accepts a contribution from a donor and agrees to transfer those assets, the return on investment of those assets, or both to another entity that is specified by the donor. Under this provision, if a not-for-profit organization establishes a fund at a community foundation with its own funds and specifies itself as the beneficiary of that fund, the community foundation must account for the transfer of such assets as a liability. The Foundation refers to such funds as agency or "organization" funds. The Foundation maintains variance power and legal ownership of agency funds and as such continues to report the funds as assets of the Foundation. However, in accordance with FASB ASC 958-605-50, a liability has been established for the fair value of the funds.

Oversight of Community Foundation operations is provided by a volunteer board of directors (see page 21) that approves all distributions and monitors compliance with donors' wishes. Dr. Deborah J. Reeder, left, and Joan E. Jones in 2009 ended board tenures of nine and ten years, respectively.

Independent auditors' report

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial position of the Community Foundation of Mount Vernon & Knox County (the Foundation) as of December 31, 2009 and 2008, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Foundation's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Community Foundation of Mount Vernon & Knox County as of December 31, 2009 and 2008, and the results of operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

As described in Note 9 to the financial statements, the Foundation has restated the 2008 financial statements to reflect assets held by the Foundation that are funds held as custody funds as a liability on the financial statements, rather than as net assets of the Community Foundation of Mount Vernon & Knox County. In addition, all net assets of the Foundation have been reclassified as unrestricted due to variance power held by the Foundation established by the instruments of transfer between the Foundation and the donors

Foundation collaboration with United Way benefits Head Start

A collaboration of two local philanthropic organizations resulted in timely aid for a budget-strapped service provider.

In February 2009 the Community Foundation board had earmarked $30,000 in emergency funds for a grantee to be recommended by the United Way of Knox County. The Foundation, which does not typically fund operations, anticipated some local agencies would face mission-threatening budget cuts due to slack economic conditions.

By partnering with United Way, whose principal focus is program funding, the Foundation was assured its economic stabilization grant would be channelled to the neediest local service provider. Subsequent to a thorough assessment of its partner agency budgets, United Way recommended the entire $30,000 be used to rescue Head Start's full-time infant, toddler and preschool-aged child care program, which was facing closure due to cuts in state funding.

The Foundation's investment provided continuity in service to families, as well as the time to seek other funding. In late 2009 Head Start was awarded two federal grants to sustain these critical full-day child care services.

May we assist you in achieving your philanthropic goals?

Virtually all of the endowed funds listed on the preceding pages were created as the result of an inquiry made by a prospective donor to an attorney or estate planner, to the Community Foundation staff, or to a board member. If you desire to "leave a legacy" to your community be assured there is no better partner than a community foundation. Let us explain how effortlessly you can establish a named fund that could provide college scholarships, funds for our competitive grants program, annual support for a designated charity, or grants for different charities each year through a donor-advised fund. Our minimum contribution to create a named fund is still just $5,000, or just $1,000 as a Legacy Society member. Interested? Call us today!
